

A dark space
red lights soundscape

Collective morning gathering Enchanted bodies, space immediately enchaining every single body in the room.

Bodies breathing deep, bodies closing their eyes, bodies straining intensely deeply.

Some smiling, some confused, others sceptical, some pretending to be sceptical, some mirroring others, playing with the poetry, the poetic potential of the space and bodies. Beauty.

The power of space. Space's potential to uphold, create poetry.

- Intensified presence.
