It is our great pleasure to be able to invite you to visit Sisters Academy – The Takeover on April 17th 2020 when we open the doors and show you what happens when a performance-art group takes over the leadership of a youth school.

From April 14th to April 24th, the performance-group Sisters Hope will focus on and explore more sensuous modes of learning, being and being together with the teachers, staff and students at AFUK.

Please announce your visit by writing nana@sistershope.dk, and in return you will be invited for a specific time where you will be given a guided tour of the school.

Sisters Academy is a nordic project initiated in 2014- which is equally rooted in performance-art, research, pedagogy and activism. It aims at proactively manifesting a more sensuous and poetic educational system.

is a co-production between:

SISTERS HOPE (DK)

Sisters Hope is a Copenhagen-based performance-group and movement with an associated international troupe of performers and creatives from various backgrounds. Sisters Hope operate in the intersection of performance art, research, activism and pedagogy. They draw on immersion and intervention when they manifest on the stages of everyday life and beyond aiming at democratizing and unfolding the aesthetic dimension. Especially focusing on educational contexts as in the on-going large-scale project Sisters Academy. Sisters Hope was founded in 2007 by Gry Worre Hallberg and Anna Lawaetz and is currently led by Gry.

AFUK - AKADEMIET FOR UTÆMMET
KREATIVITET (DK)

AFUK is a community consisting of two schools, an FGU school and a folk high school, and four associations. AFUK is an untraditional learning environment that seeks to stimulate entrepreneurship, creativity and support new and alternative ideas. The school aims to inspire their students to challenge themselves both on a professional and personal level.
